March 15, 2026

The Bishop Hill Book Fair

For Immediate Release

The sixth annual Bishop Hill Book Fair will be held on Saturday April 11th, from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Bishop Hill Creative Commons - 309 Bishop Hill St., Bishop Hill, IL 61419.

Authors representing a wide range of genres, from children's books, history and young adult novels, to romance, mystery, memoir, poetry, and horror, are participating. The line-up includes 19 local authors: Allen McCaulley, Amanda McNeill, Carol Paur, Dan Moore, David Gullstrand, Debra Borys, Grace McCormick, Jacob Mundy, Jannifer Powelson, Jill Ryan, Karen Musser Nortman, Lea Anne Guettler, Mary Davidsaver, Matthew Marchand, Mike Bayles, Sharon Meisenheimer, Robert Glaser, Sue Rovens, and Thomas McKay.

This book fair is designed to offer something for everyone. For book lovers: This is a day to meet and greet local authors, hear them discuss their recent work, and support them in their artistic endeavors. The event is free, and books will be available for purchase. Authors will be happy to sign and personalize their books.

For young authors: Hear about the life of real writers from actual authors! Collect autographs and add to your growing stack of books to read. Explore writing ideas and walk away inspired to pursue your dreams!

For teachers and libraries: Meet some of your favorite local authors and book author visits to your school or library. Pick up some fun ideas to inspire your students to want to read and write more fluently.

For aspiring authors: visit with local authors to help learn more about writing, publishing, and promoting your works.

There is no fee to attend, and a portion of the proceeds will go toward Cultural Crossroads Connections.
